

Final Direction - “8” concept

Primary reasons for pursuing this concept:

- Lower hold helps when transitioning from a seated to standing position
- Wider base than traditional single point canes increases stability
- Open loops provide an alternative way to carry the cane when not actively in use.

Mock-ups and sketches were used to help define the final form