South Dakota Hall of Fame

Crazy Horse – Known as a brave and generous Sioux Indian warrior, he is honored at the Crazy Horse Memorial in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

The South Dakota Hall of Fame was started in 1974 to recognize the leaders of South Dakota who contributed to the development and heritage of the state. It wasn't until 1996 that the South Dakota Hall of Fame was designated the official Hall of Fame for South Dakota through legislation. It operates as a non-profit, non-governmental organization.

Each fall, an induction ceremony is held announcing up to 15 new members in the South Dakota Hall of Fame. Anyone may nominate an individual, living or deceased for consideration. Each nominee must have lived in South Dakota for a portion of their life.

The South Dakota Hall of Fame is located off I-90 at exit 263. Summer hours, Memorial Day through Labor Day, are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., and on Saturday and Sunday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Winter hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

For more information about the South Dakota Hall of Fame, please call (800) 697-3130 or (605) 234-4216.
