

...a land for all seasons

From the glistening white sands of Lake Michigan's beaches to the verdant and beautiful countryside, Harbor Country combines the best of two worlds. Rustic country charm is coupled with highly sophisticated shops, lodging, restaurants and galleries. There's fun, relaxation and discovery to be enjoyed year around.

In the summer, the only required activities are walking the beaches, catching a fiery sunset's magical glow across the water and being together in the balmy night's silence beneath a starjeweled sky with only the lapping of waves and a chorus of crickets to disturb the solitude.

The magnificent burst of fall foliage makes a striking backdrop for biking through the rolling countryside, trips to area pumpkin farms, apple picking and visits to area vineyards for harvest fests and tastings.

Winter's pristine whiteness presents a fairyland of ice-coated branches sparkling in the sunlight and children gaily sledding down snow-covered sand dunes or simply catching snowflakes on their tongues. Cross-country skiing, hay rides at tree farms to harvest the most wonderful tannenbaum ever and leisurely holiday shopping combine to make a perfect day culminating with settling down before a roaring fire.

Thousands of flowering fruit trees blooming here in the heartland's renowned "produce belt" are an enchanting prelude to summer. The heady fragrances of blossomtime make country drives exhilarating. Farms are filled with baby animals and the fruit stands burst with the freshest spring produce.

Harbor Country's magnificent natural attributes, along with the small-town friendly charm and warm hospitality, promise to make every visit memorable.

Skip's Restaurant

Harbor Country's favorite steakhouse restaurant

It's not only recommended by townspeople and business owners alike, it's virtually mandatory when in Harbor Country to pay a visit to Skip's Restaurant.

Skip's, Harbor Country's only award-winning steakhouse restaurant and bar, is owned and operated by the Sobecki family. For more than three decades, three generations of Sobeckis have developed this iconic establishment into a standard of comparison among other restaurants of its type. It takes more than 40 employees to serve the thousands and thousands of customers who visit each year, with the majority of employees celebrating more than 10 years with this company.

This landmark establishment is renowned for its succulent prime rib and hand-carved steaks, but those aren't the only reasons people return over and over again. The faces are familiar, the food is consistently fresh and delicious; the atmosphere is friendly, warm, inviting and cozy. Similarly, the staff and decor are unpretentious and anyone in less than a happy mood can be assured that Skip's crew will work hard to change their mood to one of joviality and celebration while under their roof.

The American-fare menu is diverse and includes not only the best beef in the area, it also features seafood, fish, chicken, veal, pastas and New Zealand rack of lamb. It's also the only restaurant that still serves three full courses. No ala carte here (unless you want an ala carte item), it all comes with the dinner entree: soup, salad, and a side dish.

And although it takes a dedicated and loyal crew to keep Skip's in the forefront, moreover, it's the customers who deserve the credit for Skip's long success.

"Skip's prime rib is a standard of excellence we compare to all other restaurants – nothing better. We mean it!" remarked Kathy and Roger Acera of South Haven, Mich.

Customers and critics alike have catapulted Skip's into somewhat of a local legend, voting this restaurant as their favorite on many levels: best prime rib, best steak, best restaurant, best place to propose, all in some very prestigious venues such as Lake Magazine, The Herald Palladium, The Harbor Country News, Michiana Now and the Zagat Survey.

Mike and Emmy Mongoven of Naperville, Ill. said it best, "Thanks for the best prime rib of our lives. A great day when we found you eight years ago. You're always on our list when we go to Michigan."

So when in Michigan, specifically Harbor Country, do as so many others have done, pay a visit to Skip's and taste yourself what has kept Skip's at the forefront for 34 years.

Best In New Buffalo!!

Posted by 1perfectionist on 2008/05/16

Hannah's in New Buffalo is my top choice for Harbor Country dining and has been since they opened 20-odd years ago. The food quality has always been consistently superior and the variety is unrivaled. My family and I eat there regularly, often entertain out of town guests at Hannah's, and never tire of the eclectic menu. They offer something for every taste and appetite; from entrée salads and yummy sandwiches to sumptuous prime rib dinners and a great variety of other full course entrees. Kids can choose from the varied and reasonably-priced kiddies' menu. Some of my favorites include the Reuben Sandwich prepared with absolutely delicious house-made corned beef, Artichoke Chicken Fettuccine that comes in so generous a portion that I always have lunch for the following day, and their crispy signature Roast Duck (something I would never make at home!). Finally, I have to mention the hospitality and service at Hannah's. The hosts Sherri and Lee (a husband and wife team) are the original owners and clearly appreciate the loyal following that they have developed. They are a warm, inviting, good humored couple who go out of their way to please and take evident pride in Hannah's, as well they should.
