

Game Modes

Fantasy challenge

This mode you protect your best 3 players the rest can be taken away by other teams after each game you win more roster point because you start out with limited points but can earn by winning games and mini-games challenges.

Franchise mode

In this mode you pick a team that you want to be then you play through a whole year of games then you redo your roster and you draft incoming players to make your team better.

In this would be you as rookie from the 2010 draft that you can choose to be in the NFL superstar

NFL Superstar

In this mode you are a player that is real or a made up one or one imported from NCAA 10 you go through his career by first being drafted to a team the signing a contract then after it's up choose if you want to stay or go to a new team and deciding when to retire from the game.

Defense controls

Choose a player to control Button or button

Defensive play maker Highlight a player then move the right analog stick up for in a middle zone for linemen and middle linebackers and puts DB's in deep zone down to blitz down 2 times for QB contain left to go to into QB spy right to play the flats or in the curls

Defensive line Adjustments L1 button then directional buttons up to spread out the defensive ends outside the tackles down to tight between the tackles left and right to shift the line left analog stick

Move player Control player nearest ball Button

Hit stick right analog stick

Sprint Button

Dive Button

Strip ball L1 or R1 Button

Rip/Swim/Spin L2 or R2 Button

Strafe (when not engaged) R1 Button

Swat ball (when not engaged) L1 Button