

FORM DEVELOPMENT AND MATERIALS

Moving from left to right, the first sketch model to last. The red line illustrations demonstrate more clearly the difference from one model to the next. Although some modification might seem slight, the overall development results in a more unified and beautiful design suited for human proportions.

1/8 scale models: aluminium rod and masking tape

working prototype:
powder coated steel rod and raw cowhide