

The ARchair can be used as a side chair or as a dining chair. It is fabricated from steel and raw cowhide and was designed and built in Copenhagen, Denmark. The structure of the chair is formed through two interconnecting lines, making a strong yet simple form. The leather seat material can be exchanged for fabric, weatherproof webbing, or an alternate leather to create a new look without a new structure, meeting needs and minimizing waste.

