

Objective

To obtain experience in an innovative and environmentally/socially conscious architectural design firm, where I can grow as a designer and work to complete my IDP.

Education

Sept. 2009- Current U of M Minneapolis, MN
Professional M.Arch. and M.S. in Architecture - Sustainable Design
Spring 2011 Study Abroad- Humanitarian Design: Haiti.

Aug. 2004-May 2008 SIUC Carbondale, IL
Pre-professional BS in Architectural Studies Program

Work Experience

March 2011-May 2011 AFH Port-Au-Prince, Haiti
Volunteer through U of M with Architecture for Humanity in Haiti.

June 2010-July 2010 D.E.M.O Minneapolis, MN
Student assistant teaching/learning with grade school students

Aug. 2006- May 2008 Engineering Services Carbondale, IL
Positions Held: Cad Technician, student worker

Personal Skills

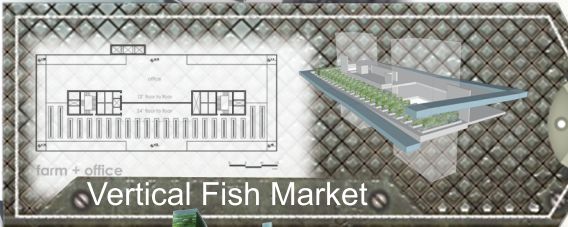

Proficient in: AutoCAD; ADT; Revit; SketchUp(with Podium, V-ray, and Kerkythea); 3D Studio Max modeling, rendering(V-ray, Mental Ray, and Maxwell), and animating; Rhinoceros 4.0 with base knowledge of Grasshopper plugin; FormZ rendering; Ecotect; Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, and InDesign; Microsoft office suite; OpenOffice Suite; hand drafting; pencil and ink rendering; marker rendering; sketching; and model construction.

Awards and Activities

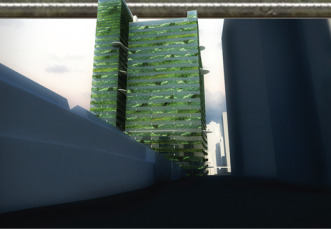

Salutatorian at BCHS, Provost Scholarship at SIUC, Dean's List at SIUC from: fall 2004 to spring 2008; Graduated Cum Laude, Boy Scout-Eagle Scout; Member of the SIUC Chapter of the AIAS, CSI, and PCI; Member and Vice President of the Digital Modeling and Rendering Club, Member of the Building Committee for the Gaia House in Carbondale, Best Picture- Seasteading Institute's design competition, 2011 Design Democracy Fellowship recipient.

E-mail: estepp18@gmail.com Address: 2028 Seabury Ave. #2
Phone: 618-780-5499 Minneapolis, MN 55406
Website: www.coroflot.com/estepp

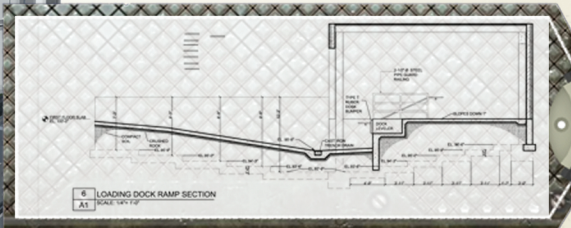

References and full portfolio available upon request

Vertical Fish Market

Interfaith Housing

Urban Nature Center

Marion High School

