> With 2010 well under way and the summer months approaching, the air is heating up with hot celebrity weddings. When one superstar unites with another sparks are bound to fly, and make for some of the most beautiful, elegant, lavish and over the top weddings in the world.

Penelope Cruz and Javier Bardem make for one of the most beautiful international Hollywood couples around. Sharing a similar cultural upbringing and the language of love, the two are preparing to wed this year in their native country of Spain. Penelope has already started the planning process by asking Mick Jagger's designer girlfriend L'Wren Scott to create her wedding gown, according to reports. Penelope is sure to be radiant if she chooses a dress similar to her burgundy Oscar's dress.

John Krasinski may have just fathered a baby on his hit show 'The Office,' but in real life he hasn't gotten that far. Krasinski is preparing to marry the beautiful Emily Blunt from 'The Devil Wears Prada.' The two are planning a fairytale wedding at an undisclosed tropical location.

This beautiful actress and singer has been flashing her gigantic engagement ring all over town since Mike Comrie proposed to her on their Hawaiian vacation. Hilary Duff is glowing with excitement, although she hasn't found the right dress yet, she told the press, "I want it to be traditional. I don't want it to be too big and overwhelming, because I'm so small. A big dress would make me look like a big cupcake!"

As for Nicole Richie and Joel Madden who have been together for quite some time and now have two children together, Richie says she hasn't even thought about her dress yet. Richie is a designer, so maybe she'll create a one-of-a-kind dress for her own wedding.
