

My Handbag

By: Varinia Pereira

Read more at:
StyleToMe.com

RALPH LAUREN SUNGLASSES

They have a dark tint to protect my eyes since I wear contacts most of the time.

WALLET

I got this little billfold as a going away present from a dear friend when I left Plano, Texas, so it has sentimental value to me. It is also small and convenient.

CAMERA

I have it in my purse because my daughter goes to Lake Brantley and I want to take pictures of their homecoming.

LOREAL LIPSTICK

This is the best lipstick in the world. I have tried every lipstick and this is great because it gives a little color and a pearlized shine without being over-the-top.

EMPERIA HANDBAG SOLD IN CERISE

I got this bag as part of my fall shipment and I had to have it for myself. The color is fabulous and it's under $100 which makes it a great luxury everyone can afford.

IPHONE WITH PINK CASE

My last phone was a free phone so my husband said I had to get with the 21st century and got me an iPhone.

GUM

I have to have this to freshen my breath, but I never chew it while talking to people.

PEN

You never know when you're going to need it.

CARMEX

I have big lips so I have to keep them moisturized. I use this when I'm not wearing lipstick.

>> BERRY MORRIS: OWNER OF CERISE FINE JEWELRY & CLOTHING IN WINTER PARK

> It's hard to believe that Berry Morris owner of Cerise Fine Jewelry & Clothing in Winter Park has a 20-year-old daughter. She is a picture of youth and style in a leopard print top and skinny jeans. Berry grew up in a small town in West Texas, so small that if you were driving by and blinked – you'd miss it.

She got married and eventually moved to Orlando because of her husband's career. She went to Rollins and obtained a degree in Communication. She also began working as a merchandise coordinator for Tommy Hilfiger and then for Calvin Klein and realized her true passion was in clothing, jewelry and everything women love. Berry credits her mother for sparking her love and passion for fashion. "My mom was a true Texan fashionista. I don't think I ever saw my mom wearing a pair of tennis shoes," Berry said.

When Berry had the opportunity to buy into a store as a co-owner she jumped at the chance. When she became full owner, she renamed the store to Cerise, which is 'cherry' in French because it represented fashion fuchsia, and pink has always been her favorite color.

When she is not busy in her store, she and her husband of 24 years, Peter, are busy going to concerts and making time for fun with their daughters Bailey, 20, Alex, 16, and son Jonathan who is only 9.

Mostly what she wants to share with women is having the experience of a personal shopper, which she and her staff give shoppers who go to Cerise.

This Winter Park boutique has something for everyone, whether you're 20 or 70, you will find funky clothing, classy handbags, and unique and affordable semi-precious jewelry – but most of all, you will find a love for fashion.<