

COURTESY OF LEGOLAND® FLORIDA

EXPANDING THE FUN

2011 will usher in several new additions to Orlando's world-class attractions.

By Varinia Pereira

Orlando is already one of the top tourist destinations in the world. And 2011 marks a year that Orlando gets even better, with a brand new theme park, additions to existing attractions and a whole slew of new things to see and do.

Building Up

The most anticipated upcoming event this year is the grand opening of Legoland Florida set to open in October 2011. Legoland Florida will be a 150-acre theme park geared specifically to families with children ages 2 to 12. There will be more than 50 interactive rides, shows and attractions including amazing Lego models making it unlike any other theme park in Florida. Several Cypress Gardens attractions, including the historical gardens, will be integrated into the theme.

Heavenly Fun

Holy Land Experience, the divinely inspired attraction dedicated to Biblical teachings, will be opening a new building in summer 2011 called The Church of