

Who's Hot ... & Who's Not in 2010

Celebrity Soup

By:Varinia Pereira

Read more at:
StyleToMe.com

WHO'S HOT :)

> It's a new year, which brings a mix of fresh faces and fan favorites. There are so many celebrities, but a few are set to stand out from the bunch in 2010.

A Rare Gem

Maybe you know her from her breakout role as the sensuous Bond girl in Quantum of Solace or maybe you know her because she beat out 1500 other actresses for that coveted role; Gemma Arterton is our pick for up-and-coming actress for 2010. This gorgeous brunette will be starring in three blockbuster movies in 2010: Clash of the Titans, Prince of Persia: The Sands of Time and Wuthering Heights. What you may not know about Gemma is that she was born with six fingers on each hand and overcame many obstacles to reach 'It' girl status. Gemma has finesse, beauty, grace and a hot accent.

Good Girl Gone Bad

Scarlett Johansson is back on the silver screen after spending some time as a singer and with her new husband Ryan Reynolds; Scarlett is hotter than ever as the vixen, Black Widow in Iron Man 2. She is said to earn over $17 million per movie. The original Black Widow was supposed to be Emily Blunt. Some surmised that Scarlett stole the role, but Emily says she had scheduling conflicts. Either way, we've seen Scarlett play the good girl so many times, it will be refreshing to see her in this villainous role.

King of the World

A familiar face... with roles in Oscar-win-