> If you haven't heard of Kesha Rose Sebert, also known as Ke$ha, or at least heard her super-catchy song on the radio 'Tik Tok' then you've probably been living under a rock. Kesha, with her model-like looks and bad girl attitude makes for a spicy and sweet new addition to the pop music scene. She makes no apologies for who she is and doesn't pretend to be the innocent girl next door. In fact, she even has a song called 'Bad Girl's Lament.'

This 22-year-old's success was not handed to her on a silver platter. She may be young, but she knows what hard work and perseverance are. According to her biography on her Web site, Kesha was determined to have Prince produce her first album. Two years ago, the unknown singer/songwriter found his address, paid the gardener to let her in the front gate and rode the elevator right up to where Prince was on the third floor of his Beverly Hills home. His security immediately kicked her out, but she was able to give him her demo CD wrapped in a purple bow. Although her brave adventure didn't result in Prince producing her album, it speaks to the character of this newcomer to the music world. Kesha's ambition is not the only unique thing about her. Her music is completely different than the current tunes on the airwaves. Its creative mixture of pop singing, rap and dance tempo, make it stand out from everything
