

User Interaction

Open box, set up board and lay out components

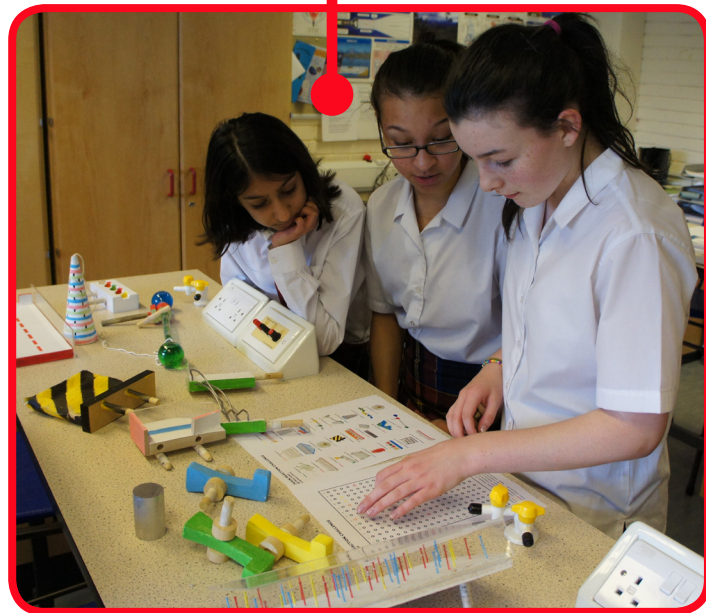

Cooperate in teams to gather & assemble components on board

Use problem solving skills to place suitable parts in spaces

Enjoy the fun of the energy run!

Split in to teams and follow either beginner, intermediate or advanced instructions

Use trial and error to adjust components to ensure energy transfers accordingly

Place facts next to the correct objects and write on extra observations in chalk

Now create a run of your own...