

Oil Review

Middle East

Covering Oil, Gas and Hydrocarbon Processing

UK £10, USA $16.50

Exploration opening for Lebanon as energy law passed

Iran claims gasoline production self-sufficiency

Saudi Aramco - a special focus

Libya - a land of opportunity?

SAOGE 2010 - a show of strength

Fibreglass - it's in the pipeline

Improving economic analysis methods at EGPC

Fast-tracking reservoir characterisation

Egypt - a future in gas

Saudi Aramco president and CEO Khalid A. Al-Falih told delegates to the Oxford Energy Forum that the global petroleum industry faces trying times as a confluence of factors - demographic, political, business, macroeconomic and operational, as well as public perceptions of the industry - presents significant challenges - and, possibly, tremendous opportunities.

SAOGE 2010

See us at the show