

1st floor plan

THE BUILDING

The business Incubator is a gateway building of the proposed IT park. The temperate climate in Bangalore allows the building to be very open and utilize natural light and ventilation. This helps in passively cooling the building. The pool on the south helps in cooling the summer winds entering the building. Solar panels are mounted facing the south direction for maximum exposure and louvers on the North allow the air to move freely.

