

This project was for a family in Minnesota. The space includes Thomasville's furnishings, fabrics, accessories, and custom window treatments. This family really wanted a space where they could gather together and relax but was also aesthetically pleasing for guests. The neutral color scheme with pops of pattern and texture in both the fabrics and accessories help to achieve these design goals in style.

Woodbury, Minnesota

