

The Solution

A multiple component solution to better total health

HealthButton is a system comprised of a display unit and supporting accessories that monitor various aspects of the users health. The data is uploaded into a software program that shows relation between the information being monitored and approaches health as a whole rather than on an individual level.