

Displays

The two faces display time on either side and make the watch more versatile

This is the more formal face that features hours, minutes, seconds, and the date. It is the “buisness” display.

This is a visual face that shows a simplified version when precise time is not needed. This side shows the user a more “casual” experience.