

2010 Truland Golf Classic

The Truland Group is delighted to announce the details of our 2010 Golf Classic, to be held Monday, October 11, 2010 at the Bethesda Country Club. This daylong event offers the opportunity for our clients, vendors, and management to enjoy world class golf, socialize, celebrate another great year of teamwork, and support the future of our industry!

The 2010 Truland Golf Classic benefits the Integrated Design and Electronics Academy (IDEA) Public Charter School of Washington, DC.

Our 2010 fundraising goal is $25,000, which will be derived from the proceeds of this event. This booklet describes the IDEA School and the sponsorship packages we are offering this year.

Truland will donate 100% of the proceeds from your sponsorship to IDEA.

IDEA Public Charter School

The 2010 beneficiary of the Truland Golf Classic is the Integrated Design and Electronics Academy (IDEA) Public Charter School in Washington, D.C. Educating students in grades 7-12, IDEA's mission is: "the development of young people with the academic, social, leadership, and occupational skills to compete successfully in post-secondary education and training and to enter challenging careers in the technical fields of work." IDEA offers a unique learning environment that integrates academic and technical coursework in electronics, engineering design, and computer technology with leadership development fostered by the Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC) Program.
