

wine & cheese

Been a long week? Join the staff in the reception area at 5 PM this Friday. Have a glass of wine and hors d'oeuvres, let your hair down, and meet our new interns Jessica and Robert. We'd like to make them feel like they're a part of our friendly PredaCorp family. Word is, George Tirebiter is on the verge of the big four-oh, and we want to lend him our heartfelt support as he goes gently into that good night. Just kidding, George! In other PredaCorp family news, Betsy "Church Lady" Mogensen will very soon be taking her maternity leave. How many does this make now, Betsy? Four, five? Those breeders! They're the Salt of the Earth.

Speaking of which, who was it who dubbed our new subterranean wing "salt mine"?

'Fess up,

who

ever

it

was

!Uh-

oh!

I'm

in a very

nar-row

space and I can't seem to finish that thought ...