

THE ELLIOTT SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATION PRESENTS

POPCORN NIGHTS

SPRING 2010

NOTICE

During the semester, a movie related to communication industries and professions will be shown once a month in Elliott Hall room 112. There will be popcorn available in the Commons area. These events are free to any WSU student with an ID. Donations will be accepted towards a new Multimedia Lab.

Semester selections:

“Helvetica”

A feature-length independent film about typography, graphic design and global visual culture, Helvetica looks at the proliferation of one typeface as part of a larger conversation about the way type affects our lives.

Thursday, Feb. 18 at 7 p.m.

“Shattered Glass”

Tells the true story of a Washington, D.C. journalist who rose to meteoric heights as a young writer, becoming a staff writer for three years where 27 of his 41 stories were either partially or completely made up. He concocted sources, quotes and even entire stories, but his deception did not go unnoticed forever, and eventually, his world came crumbling down.

Thursday, March 21 at 7 p.m.

“What Women Want”

An advertising exec hot shot has his life turned haywire when a fluke accident enables him to hear what women think. At first all he wants to do is rid himself of this curse, until a wacky psychologist shows him that this could be used to his advantage! His first target is Darcy McGuire, the very woman that got the promotion he wanted. But just as his plan is beginning to work, love gets in the way.

Thursday, April 19th at 7 p.m.
