Out women. Out to win.

Women have always been at the forefront of LGBT politics. In December 2009, Annise Parker continued that legacy. She made history when she was elected mayor of Houston, the nation's fourth largest city.

During Women's History Month, we're reminded of the immense impact openly lesbian, bisexual, and transgender women have had on the fight for LGBT equality. But we're also working hard throughout the year to make sure out women continue to blaze a trail for those who will come after them.

That's why we're proud to endorse Nancy VanReece and Robin Kneich, out women who are out to win. Please join us in supporting these groundbreaking candidates now.

Nancy VanReece - Nashville, Tennessee Metro Council

As the sole proprietor of a management and consulting firm, Nancy understands the hard work it will take to win her race. And if she wins, Nancy will be the only openly LGBT representative on the Nashville Metro Council, and one of just a handful of openly LGBT officials in the state of Tennessee. Nancy is ready for this fight, and so are we. Will you stand with her?

Please go to www.victoryfund.org/women today or make checks payable to Nancy VanReece 4 Metro Council.

Robin Kneich - Denver, Colorado City Council

Robin has dedicated her life to making Denver a better place to live and work for ALL families. In fact, she has more than fifteen years of public policy experience at all levels of government. Denver's LGBT community has never had an authentic voice on the city council, but Robin is poised to make history. Will you join us and help her win?

Please go to www.victoryfund.org/women today or make checks payable to Kneich for Council At-Large.

Please join the Victory Fund as we celebrate Women's History Month with these trailblazing, history-making women.
