Work Experience

Children's Apparel Network, New York

Graphic Artist | August 2006 - January 2014

Conceptualized, designed, and executed on original art for Boys Apparel (age 4-7). Collaborated with my Art Director on the design process, in a high pressure environment. Created a new brand named Industry 9 from the ground up for the Tween-Boys market. Expert level in screen printing and production process. Apparel is sold in major department stores, including but not limited to, Lord & Taylor, Macy's, Bloomingdales, Sears Canada, Kohls, Burlington, and Target.

GI Apparel, New Jersey

Graphic Artist | June 2002 - July 2006

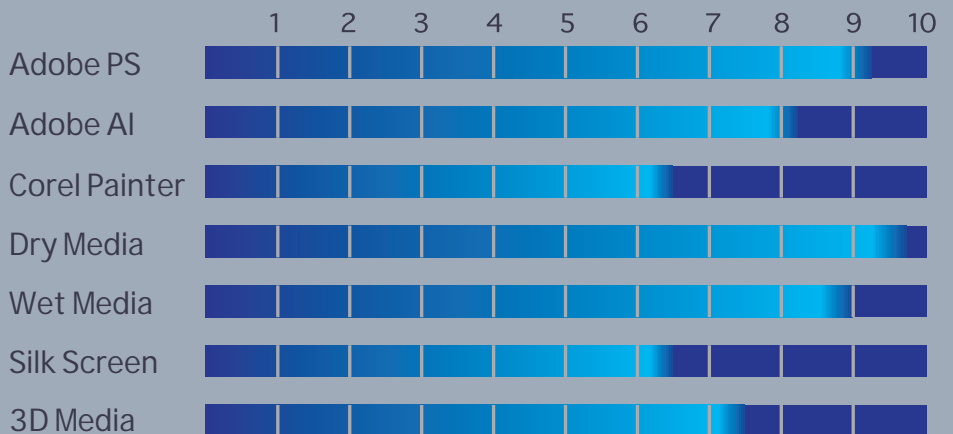

Conceptualized and execute on designs for Men & Boys' apparel. Specialized in screen printed t-shirts. Responsible for the oversight and execution of color separation and sampling of production designs. Intensive photo manipulation and photo retouching required.

FOX News Channel, New York

On-Air Graphic Designer | June 2000 - July 2002

Designed over the shoulder graphics and stock market figures for daytime and evening news programming in a high pressure, results oriented environment. Learned and used Paint Box graphics program to create graphics.
