

Tiger

There are 6 species of tigers left in the world. They are found in the mountains of the Himalayas, the jungles of the Indian subcontinent, and the rainforests of the Malay Peninsula. Tigers are the largest cats in the world and are known for their strength and speed. They are also very beautiful animals with their distinctive stripes.

Fun Facts

- Some tigers live where it gets very cold.
- The scientific name for the tiger is Panthera tigris.
- All tigers have exactly the same stripes.
- A tiger's head is big. Their tail can be as long as their body.
- In captivity, a tiger can live to be 20 years old.

Zebra

There is one remaining wild zebra living where you can see a real zebra in the wild. It is the Kudu zebra, which lives in the mountains of the Himalayas. Zebras are known for their stripes and are very strong animals. They are also very beautiful.

Fun Facts

- A group of zebras is called a herd.
- Zebras can run very fast.
- Zebras have stripes.
- A zebra's tail is long.

Chimpanzee

Panda

Typ O 2000

study animal flash cards