

Chef Emmanuel Stroobant

Size: W700mm x H900mm

EMMANUEL STROOBANT

whipped up 36 recipes
in a SignatureKitchen

to promote his new series on AsianFoodChannel

Belgian Chef, Emmanuel Stroobant, was recently in KL to promote his new series on AFC called 36 Ways to Live. This new show in collaboration with SignatureKitchen focus on Chef Emmanuel Stroobant inviting his closest VIP friends and media personalities to dine with him in the fully equipped SignatureKitchen showroom.

Chef Emmanuel started his career at the tender age of 16. By the time he was 23, Chef Emmanuel had opened his first restaurant, Le Bal.

He clinched several awards such as the Wine and Dine Best New Restaurant 2002, Most Innovative Menu 2002, 2004 and 2007, the World Gourmet Summit – Award of Excellence.

In addition to his many awards, Chef Emmanuel also wrote two cookbooks: Cuisine Unplugged and Vine Dining: White. Today, Chef Emmanuel owns a number of restaurants in Singapore. From fine-dining French restaurant, Saint Pierre, Rocks Urban Grill + Bar, a fine-dining modern Italian restaurant, and Brussels Sprouts, which offers Belgian cuisine, to the family-style eateries Picotin and Sque Rotisserie & Alehouse.

36
ways to live
EMMANUEL STROOBANT

Astro Channel 703
9:30pm every Wednesday
All 12 EPISODE are filmed at
SIGNATURE 3RD PLACE
Kota Damansara