COMPANIONSHIP
MAKES LIVING JOYOUS

Feeling changing years and living in a retirement community is not easy.

Since our founding in 1944, we've had the opportunity to see several generations live at Wesley Homes. Mothers, daughters, fathers, sons, aunts and uncles and so on. There is a wonderful feeling of camaraderie here. Residents care about one another. They enjoy making newcomers feel at home. The people here WANT to be here. As one of our residents said, "we have our bread and we are perfectly content. This was the only place we considered."

Most of our professional staff have served our company for many years. They love the work. Capable and dedicated, our staff assures you have efficient operation in dining, hotel services, environmental services, social services, housekeeping, laundry, activities, resident relations, administration, business affairs, planned giving, marketing and admissions.

Fellowship and friendship draw people to Wesley Homes. It's why our residents live longer, better lives.
