JAMES (DILLA) YANCEY

James Yancey, or better known as Jay Dilla to the music scene was born on Feb. 7, 1974 in the home of Motown, Detroit Michigan. Jay's contribution to the hip hop music industry can be heard from well known artist's such as Busta Rhymes, Common, Erykah Badu and Janet Jackson to name a few. Jay Dilla was also known as inspiration to some of the biggest name producers from Kanye West to Pharrell Williams. Jay Dilla was known to create music by sampling other types of music such as jazz, funk, folk and soul.

We will commemorate the life of a great musician the way he would want us to, through the music. Jay Dilla's life will forever be remembered and never forgotten. As long as the record spins, the music won't stop... Donuts Forever!
