Scalabrinian is an international community of religious brothers and priests founded in Piacenza, Italy in 1887 by Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini. The congregation has been called to announce the good news of Christ to migrants, refugees, and seafarers, especially those who require specific pastoral care. The Scalabrinians cares for migrants and refugees in a variety of ways: socially, culturally, and spiritually. Its missionaries are present in 28 nations in Asia, Australia, Africa, Europe, North and Latin America. They are in charged of shelter homes for refugees or migrants, and centers for migration studies. Most of them were engaged in preaching missions to migrant communities, teaching, and running multi-cultural parishes and ethnic missions.
