Artist: Brien Strancar

Brien Strancar discovered glass blowing at Bowling Green State University while he was pursuing a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Digital Art (believe it or not!). He was hooked on glass and decided to focus on this material to build a career after graduating with said BFA in December of 2007. Brien has been fortunate to have worked with some of the best glass blowers in the Toledo area as well as leading arts and cultural organizations. His current focus continues to be building his portfolio while increasing business for his production line through Strancar Studios. Besides glass, Brien is also nuts about his wife, bikes, and all types of manly outdoor activities.
