

Objective	To acquire a full-time employment position at a professional design firm where I may use my technical knowledge to aid in the design process for better products
Education	Appalachian State University College of Fine and Applied Arts Bachelor of Science in Industrial Design	08/09 - 05/12
Work Experience	IRWIN Tools Sponsored Studio Design brief, market research, brainstorming, conceptualized development, refinements, presentation, and a full size prototype	01/11 - 04/11
	Advance Auto Parts Boone, NC Retail Parts Pro, management position. Stocking, inventory, maintaining store appearance, installing various parts on vehicles, offering expert advice.	08/07 - 11/11
Skill Sets	Design: Technical drawing, sketching and marker renderings, brainstorming and ideation, concept development and critical thinking, model making and full scale prototyping  Fabrication: Knowledgeable in a variety of materials with hands-on experience with most hand tools and shop equipment (both wood and metal)  Computer: Efficiencies in: Rhinoceros 4.0, Solidworks, AutoCAD, Photoshop CS5, Rendering Software (Hypershot/Keyshot, Photoview360), Microsoft Word, Excell, Powerpoint,
Memberships	Appalachian State University IDSA Member	08/11 - Present
	IDSA National Member	08/11 - Present