PERFECT HARMONY

Perfect Harmony are identical twin sisters, Nickema and Kareema Weatherspoon. They are natives of Chicago, currently reside in Southern California. PH (Perfect Harmony) began to express their vocal talent at the tender age of five. They continued their expressive talents by writing at the surprising age of ten.

PH was encouraged by their grandmother, Gwendolyn Weatherspoon to sing in their church choir. She also taught them the techniques of vocal range. Through grandma's teaching, PH realized their talent. More importantly, PH discovered their passion.

Recognizing his daughter's talents, father, Errol Dillon, a Reggae singer/song writer and their uncle, Reggae icon, Shabba Ranks, took them on tour. While on tour PH, was introduced to various artists, such as, TLC and Bobby Brown. PH admired their artistry and was motivated to persevere.

Today, Nickema and Kareema, a.k.a PHarmony are opening and performing for well know artists such as Drake, Trey Songs, KC & JoJo, Ali Woodson (Temptations), Miguel, Day 26, Marques Houston, Diondre Jermaine, Teyonnie Page, and TyG (Jazz Musician). Their first single, "Voicemail" was produced by Hit Boy and Chase N Cash. PH continues to display their musical talents by writing for upcoming and international artists. They are currently releasing their second album.

BJ BRASIER & SERIOUS EFFECT Dance Crew

B.J. Brasier is originally from Tacoma, Washington, but relocated to Southern California in the eighties when he was exposed to the early hip hop dance scene with the music video Bad. B.J. began popping and locking based on what he had seen in films like "Breakin'" and the videos of Michael Jackson. After high school, B.J. began dancing with dance companies including Culture Shock, Madonna Grimes, dance fitness company, and competed under Arthur Murray's tutelage.

B.J.'s experience in entertainment is overflowing with highly recognizable names (with respect to performers, companies, choreographers and pop artists), such as: PINK, Jeff Timmons (of 98 Degrees), William Hung, Michael Jackson, Paulina Rubio, PLAY, Bianca, Kelly Ryan, Craig Titus, Paulina Rubio, The Disney Company, Jimmy Locust, Madonna Grimes, Barry Youngblood, NIKE, DADA, K-Swiss, Bally's Total Fitness, SONY, and Pacific Bell to name a few.

B.J. has also appeared in television, film, and print, such as: Jennifer Lopez's Dance Life, and Disney's 411 with Hillary Duff, not to mention many dance instructional videos.

Serious Effect Dance Crew is a dance troupe dedicated to the acceptance, performance and entertainment of all commercial styles of dance; including that of yesterday, today and tomorrow. Serious Effect Dance Crew has performed for Michael Jackson, NBC Channel 4 News, placed in the top ten at Hip Hop International, been featured on Comcast's instructional television show "Get Up And Dance", and various other live and televised events. Serious Effect is made up of dedicated and accomplished professional dancers who come together with one purpose- to entertain.
