

MULTI - TRAIL

Construction of the unit is also considerably simple, requiring only two tools, a spanner and a gas welder. The user can be supplied with the various components and can build the trailer themselves. Alternatively the trailer construction can be conducted by one business and sold on.

All of the components used in the Multi - Trail can be sourced locally in developing countries and can be replaced with ease.