

The program requirements for this project were to create a space that reflected the companies commitment to ocean conservation. I had to design a space that would enhance group and teamwork and support the employees and clients.

There were several requirements including in-house consultant workspaces, administrative office spaces, conference rooms and filing and resource areas.