

“ Suggestions as to how advertising structures could be incorporated into developing a dynamic art scene

Types of advertising structures would be a simply designed advertising structure with a design that is adaptable to any environment in this area and a strong bold structure that has localised references in its design or construction with a recognisable theme.”

