

Clip User Process

User Process

Pressing the sides of the clip opens the mouth of the sensor. The spring acts to keep it shut once it has been released, hence keeping the sensor attached to the cable.

Once a cable has been chosen, releasing the sides will click shut the sensor and if the cable is live, the LED will illuminate green to feedback to the user they have correctly installed the clip [11].