

This is the inner cardboard container. These pictures demonstrate how the user can easily insert, replace or hold the container. It can be used just like the usual polythene bags and then can be thrown away. I have thought of papier-mâché as the substitute material for the cupboard.

While the manufacturing, I thought of such type of cutting through which 2 pieces can be extracted from 1 triangular piece. This will help in reducing the bin cost.

