

Form Development

Form ideation began with organic interlocking shapes that ended up resembling naked mole rats too literally. I moved instead to geometric shapes, which didn't endorse the welcoming family feeling the light embodies. I finally landed on a celtic knot, which is organic and also represents the infinite bond between family members.

Interlocking modules, organic shapes

Geometric modules

Family members "tied" together by the light

