

Bio-Inspired Light

Design Statement

A sustainable light inspired by naked mole rats' social interactions that are caused by needing to huddle to regulate body heat. The light turns on when all of the family members' keys are hung from it, encouraging families to spend quality time together.

Materials: Acrylic, LEDs, solar panel
Fall 2011