

Brief "To diversify TFL (Transport For London) into the British and International market of high speed rail via a device that will harness the wind energy produced from high speed trains whilst complying with TFL'S well known standards."

