

I turned away from the idea of a turbine for several reasons such as:

- a turbine has visible moving parts
- a scoop could be incorporated into existing infrastructure

I now focused on developing a form for a scoop system.