

The W. M. Keck Carbon Cycle Accelerator Mass Spectrometry Facility is the first of its kind in the United States dedicated exclusively to study the environmental processes that contribute to the greenhouse effect and global warming.

UCIRVINE SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL SCIENCES

www.ps.uci.edu

Happy Holidays

UC IRVINE
SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL SCIENCES

Zot! Zot!

