Dear Brian Grey:

I live and die sports. My sports knowledge and experience make me the perfect candidate for your Lead Writer opening.

As you will see in my enclosed resume, I have the educational background and professional experience to fill this position. I have experience in several different types of media including video, print, audio, twitter and blogs. In addition, I am highly motivated and have an enthusiastic commitment to staying on top of sports news, controversy and gossip.

Throughout my 28 years I have been consumed by sports and sport is the reason I went into the field of journalism. My sports knowledge is second to none and I have informed opinions regarding all of the major sports on a collegiate and professional level.

I respectfully request the opportunity to discuss my qualifications more fully in an interview or at the very least, an opportunity to talk sports with another educated fan. You may reach me by telephone or email. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Daniel Weber
