

Remember

Looking towards 1980s fashion and memories from my childhood, this line is playful, yet sophisticated. I am very intrigued by the idea of collage in 3D forms and in doing this juxtaposing the old with the new by utilizing antique parts and combining them with new parts that are hand made and also incorporate modern technology with the use of CAD and rapid prototyping.

