

"Hotel Ambascatori" by Franco Brambilla

Neo Valley Resort is located in Palm Springs, Ca. It's architecture blends in with the mid century modern town, with it's own little quirks that make it unique. This resort attracts artists, musicians and other culture vultures. Needless to say this is not a resort for grandma & grandpa. It's a laid back place for people to stay, swim, and socialize. Being in hot Palm Springs, the pool & spa are two main features. The hotel as a whole is a mix of mid-century modern and vintage boutique. "Eclectic downtown meets posh Palm Springs"
