Discuss with your class:

What did TNT man do that made him a bully?

- Forced President Pooch to do his homework
- Hurt him verbally
- He made fun of Timmy and Pooch's costumes
- Hurt him physically (nougie)

Bullying:

- Hurts someone physically or emotionally
- Threatens
- Teases
- Name - calls
- Takes property from someone
- Causes intentional harm
- Makes another feel afraid
- Controlling
- Behavior is on purpose and is one sided
- Imbalance of power (numbers, popularity, size, gender, etc.)

What could they have done in the beginning to stop the bullying?

- Be confident and tell them to stop or say no
- Could have walked away
- The friend could have stepped in for support
- Could tell an adult you trust (which they did at the end)

Bullying Poem and Oath

In a classroom there will be times
When we disagree
Or argue with a friend
That can happen, certainly.

But if the action is repetitive
And the intention is to hurt
That is the signal
To sound a “bully alert”

A bully might name-call
Or take your property
Push, shove, or hit
Trying to hurt someone physically.

Bullying is usually one sided
And fills someone with fear
So let us take an oath
To end bullying right here!

Be confident and assertive
We can walk away
“Leave us alone”
Is something we might say.

If someone we know is being bullied
We will be a good classmate and friend
Tell an adult that we trust
It’s up to us to make bullying end!

Student Activity

Cut out President Pooch. Read the Reader's Theater Script or watch the cartoon. Everytime you reach an act of bullying, fold your character and crease it hard. Open your character back up. Continue folding each time you see an act of bullying, remembering to crease the papaer hard.

After the cartoon or Reader's Theater is over look at the waythe character looks. Have the students discuss wirh a partner what the character looks like now. Now, tell your students to tell the character they are sorry! Have the students try to smooth out the creases to make him look like new. Talk with the students about how hurtful words and bullying can leave a mark. The best way to cure bullying is to prevent it.
