

MAISON & OBJET

▼ SONIA RYKIEL MAISON

The ever-stylish Sonia Rykiel Maison debuted the Autumn/Winter 2012 collection of bed linens. The Rêves Epices range features a supple striped design on one side with a floral pattern in complementary tones on the reverse in an ultra-soft cotton Percale weave. The collection includes matching pillowcases, bathrobes, and towels.

◀ VERTER TURRONI

One half of the team behind Il Laboratorio dell' Imperfetto, Verter Turroni showed off his talent for painting and sculpture with Beetle, a stunning set of handmade fiberglass pods. Each unique piece is painted and polished by hand with meticulous and precise attention, the shapes recalling the natural objects which inspired them.

◀ LEBLON-DELIENNE

This fantastic art pop chair echoes the Ligne Claire movement established by the Franco-Belgian comics of the 1950s – the clean lines and neon colour reflect the ageless elegance of modernist design. The junior version, perfect for a child's room, is made in a limited edition of five hundred pieces.

BEST IN SHOW

Emirates Home takes an insider peek at the ten best designs from this year's MACEF Milano and Maison&Objet Paris international design fair.

▼ ANDREA BELLA CONCEPT

Andrea Bella Concept succeed in effortlessly blending efficiency and utility with an ineffable feeling of harmony by creating design pieces that are inspired – their sophisticated chairs are the perfect example of their design philosophy.

MACEF MILAN

◀ SERGIO CATALANO

Though Sergio Catalano's designs seem simple at first, they are truly infinite in beauty. In addition to being environmentally friendly, The Join Lamp collection, named so for the simple joint which holds the pieces together, comes in a variety of colours and shapes which, when combined with different bulbs, results in an endless variety of lighting possibilities.

◀ STUDIOVO

Up and coming designers Andrea Catregli and Marco Vincenzi are inspired by the study of ideas. The duo, in collaboration with manufacturer Martinelli Luce, have made their successful foray into lighting with the exceptional Vertigo lamp.

