

Virtual Designs

No longer confined to our physical surroundings, there's literally a whole world out there to choose from and it's called the World Wide Web. Here's our pick of the month

What's more important: great home décor or good oral hygiene? Why not combine the two with a sleek glass mouthwash carafe to perk up your bathroom counter.

ASSEMBLAGE

WWW.STUDIOALAWRENCE.COM

The vibrant and engaging To Gather seats are designed to combine, interact, transform, and assemble into endless constellations that are as unlimited as your imagination.

BE-LEAF IT OR NOT

WWW.COVO-SHOP.COM

Inspired by Mother Nature and perfected by Japanese technology, these leafy silicone serving dishes are both unique and environmentally friendly.

IN THE WIND

WWW.MOLECULEDESIGN.NET

We're blown away (pun intended) by this distorted interpretation of the classic design of Royal Delft Dutch porcelain, handmade by Swedish design group Front.

GIVE IT A WHIRL

WWW.ARANGO-DESIGN.COM

The cool and comfy Spun, a dynamically distinctive twist on conventional seating design, is the brainchild of London 2012 Olympic Cauldron designer, Thomas Heatherwick.

EBB AND FLOW

WWW.RIVERMIRRORS.CO.UK

Each River Mirror, bespoke creations of British designer Caryn Moberly, are made from pieces of burred elm to resemble the swelling and surging shores of a river bank.

5 A DAY

WWW.FOODGUIDEUK.CO.UK

Healthy eating and great design collide with this handy tea towel featuring a graphic table that makes choosing the most vitamin-rich fruit and vegetables a snap!

MODERN RETRO

WWW.BODIEANDFOU.COM

The famous FDC1 armchair by pioneering Brazilian designer Flávio de Carvalho earned him high praise from Le Corbusier who called him a "Romantic Revolutionary".
