

First models

For my first models I started using cloth from old clothes using the sizes from the ergonomics testing to try and get the right sizes for the children's hands .

This is my first model made from cloth with cotton wool inside it was soft and light and had no small items in the bag but couldn't get any distance whilst throwing it.

