

BEAUTY SCHOOL

Dubai-based stylist, Dennie Pasion, has over 30 years of experience in the industry and she wants to share all her knowledge with you! Dennie has worked on everything from fashion shoots for the likes of Paris Vogue and Vanity Fair, to taming the manes of Tilda Swinton, Jodie Kidd and Liam Gallagher, so if anyone knows their stuff, it's her. Over the next few months, she will be hosting special hair workshops at The Studio to teach Dubai women with a fancy for all things follicle the tricks of the trade. The workshops will run throughout June and July, so notepads and hair brushes at the ready! Find more info at denniepasion.com, or call The Studio on (04) 347 1745.

ALL-IN-ONE FUN

Does your look need a little updating? Head to Ted Morgan's Motor City salon for a head-to-toe revamp. Its new makeover package, aptly named A New You, consists of a body and face analysis, personal style assessment, hair consultation and hair styling, plus a make-up consultation, all provided by experts. A killer body and barnet in one easy step - we like! Makeovers start from Dhs2,055, so get booking on (04) 457 2309.

There were stars in our eyes when we heard Rodarte was releasing cosmic-inspired hair clips from their A/W 12 show. Watch out for them at rodarte.net to make sure your look is out of this world.

GOING TO GREAT LENGTHS

If you've ever found yourself envious of a celeb's luscious, long locks, we've got the answer for you. Great Lengths, the world's leading hair extension brand, has just opened its very own salon right here in Dubai. Whether you want Rapunzel locks, extra volume or just a little change, you can sit back and be pampered while their internationally trained hair colourists and experienced Great Lengths technicians work their magic. They also offer free consultations for extensions, perfect for those who would like extra advice. www.greatlengthssalondubai.com

