

About

Eulima is an energy efficient pendant light made from white card shells and chrome fittings. It has been inspired by shells and their structures. After experimenting with layers and tension in form, eulima was created. The slight overlapping of layers combined with the cool white LEDs gives off a soft luminosity to create a calm atmosphere.